RALSTON

The Northwest Vikings traveled to Ralston where they fought a very hard football game even though the score ended up one sided 31 to 0.

The Ralston Rams struck first with the help of some very effective faking in the backfield. They went on to score several more touchdowns, five in all but had trouble with extra points making only one.

Northwest threatens twice but just couldn't get the ball over the goal line. This leaves Northwest with a 3 and 4 record. Which we all hope is brought up to the five hundred mark with a win over David City, Friday, November 1, at David City. See you there.

PEP CLUB

The Northwest Pep Club consists of 110 girls. The sponsor is Mrs. Lindberg.

This year the Pep Club sponsored the Homecoming Dance with the theme "Autumn Leaves." They had a bake sale and car wash to make money to help pay for the buses to out-of-town games.

Thursday, October 24, the Pep Club took 3 buses to Ralston to the football game. On the way home they stopped at Congress Inn in Lincoln for supper. They had hamburgers, french fries, and cokes. I think all the girls that went had a great time.

Friday, November 1, the Pep Club will go to David City to watch the Vikings win and have lots of fun.

YOUTH COUNCIL

The Youth Council is Northwest's newest organization. It was organized with the goal of promoting at least one dance a month after a home game.

The officers of the Youth Council are: Tom Rodabaugh; president: Terry Huff; vice-president: Judy Rauert; secretary-treasurer. There were also two representatives elected from each class. The representatives are: Donna Lorenzen, Dennis Hawks, Joy Catholos, Diane Roush, Connie Hansen, Tony Matejka, Cindy Meier, and Mike Kusman.

So far the Youth Council has sponsored two after game dances both with live music. The success of the Youth Council has been very outstanding and the staff hopes it continues.

VIKINGS VICTORIOUS

On Friday, October 18, the Northwest Viking football team defeated the Hastings, St. Cecilia Blue Hawks 12-6.

This victory moved the Vikings to a 3-3 overall record and 2-1 in the Mid-Nebraska Conference northern division play. Both Northwest touchdowns were credited to Gene Boeka.

The game was a neat standoff in the first quarter, but late in the second quarter the Vikings poured on the power to make the first touchdown of the game. This ending the half with the Vikings on top 6-0.

Coach Clay brought the Vikings out on the field at the end of the half all steamed up and ready for action. Midway into the third quarter they showed it with that Viking power to make the score 12-0 going into the fourth quarter.

With 8:05 remaining on the clock in the fourth quarter the Blue Hawks, Bill Ashvura made the only touchdown for the Blue Hawks, making the score 12-6, the way it ended.

It was a great game, but also kind of sad for the Seniors, this was their last scheduled home game. A victorious one at that.

Mrs. McGahan

Central City was the home town of Mrs. McGahan where she attended both grade school and high school. Her favorite subject in high school was math, and not English as some people might think.

She attended Kearney State College and graduated in 1957, majoring in English and minoring in history and political science. She had not intended to major in English, but in her sophomore year at college a professor persuaded her to become an English teacher.

Mrs. McGahan is now teaching Junior and Senior English here at Northwest. She is head of the school newspaper and is also a Junior class sponsor.

Mrs. McGahan's most recent experience as a teacher is making the students take progress in their work. Her main objective is to see that the students are doing their best. She can be very strict in some ways to the point of making a student is to "pull all night" and to have the student work on a project. She is also a member of the American Government class, sponsored by Mr. Terry.

SENIORS

The '69' senior class of Northwest High School have launched their final year of their high school careers. Throughout the coming year the seniors will take part in many important events.

The senior class is led by President John Hasman, Vice-President Dennis Hawkes, Secretary Dara Dahlke and Treasurer Debbie Catchpool. All of which were elected by popular vote of the senior class.

This year four other seniors were elected to represent the senior class in Student Council. They are: Mike Paulick, Roxanne Boyd, Larry McDigg and Dara Dahlke. This is in addition to the president and vice-president who were elected in the spring of 1968.

In the four weeks that school has been in session, members of the senior class have conducted the election of County Government Day students. This was conducted through the American Government class, sponsored by Mr. Terry.

BOOK REPORT

AIRPORT Arthur Hailey is one of the few writers who can combine stark reality and intrigue in a story. His first books, The Final Diagnosis and Hotel did so, as does his new best seller, Airport.

Hailey also has an unusual talent of combining the events of the lives of his characters to meet in the climax and always reward the reader with a good story. He has done this again in Airport.

Mel Bakersfield is the general manager of Lincoln Airport. Mel is supposed to be at a social gathering with his wife Cindy, who likes her pictures in the society pages of the paper, but because of a snow storm, the worst in years, he should stay, even though it will mean another showdown with Cindy.

Tanya Livingston is head of Trans-American stewardesses. She knows she cares of Mel but she has to be subtle. The grapevine spreads fast around the airport.

Keith Bakersfield, Mel's brother, is hounded by a radio transmission after the mid-air crash of small pleasure plane and a National Guard T-133. As soon as his shift is through, he plans to commit suicide.

Mrs. Ada Quonsett makes a habit of being a stowaway. She often flies to New York and even if she is caught, the airlines will not prosecute because the publicity would show how easy it can be done.

D.O. Guierro is a failure and knows it. He has gone from a successful contractor to a pauper and has taken his family with him, but tonight he will board the "Golden Argosy" to Rome and over mid-Atlantic blow up the plane. His family will receive the flight insurance he took out just before boarding.

Vernon Demerest, Mel Bakerfield's brother-in-law, is flying the "Golden Argosy" to Rome. On the lay-over in Italy, he and Gwen Meighn are going to Naples. He has decided though, that after this trip he will drop Gwen. She has told him she is pregnant. He will agree to child support but he doesn't want anymore to do with Gwen. Vernon doesn't believe in getting attached.

Hailey is indeed a gifted writer. He can link the events in the lives of such different people and still provide a well-planned novel. He takes seemingly common situations and rips them apart behind the scenes. Arthur Hailey will go far.
